Eggers, of the Fourth Criminal Court in Newark, was thought to be too leuient in his disposal of a case yesterday On Saturday Capt. Bergene of the Fourth precinct caused a raid to be made upon a disreputable house at 137 Springfield avenue, kept by William Born and his wife, Pauline. Among the occupants was Rebecca Strotefski, aged 20. The raid was made upon information that this young women had formation that this young woman had been sold into bondage by her uncle, Isaac Pollack, a Polish jew. His sister, Mrs. Weiser, testified that Pollack had sold the girl to Born for $25.

Mary Kurtz, aged 63, Born's cook, also testified that she heard the bargain made between Born and Pollack, and that the girl had cried and fought when she learned the character of the place, but that Mrs. Born completely intimidated her. The girl confirmed the story, and told of the degradation she had been subjected to. Polluck and

Born both denied her story.

After listening to the testimony
Judge Eggers sentenced Born to pay a fine of $50 and costs, and sent Pollack and Rebecca Strotefski, the girl who was sold, to jail for ninety days each. The other girls in the house received sentences of from thirty to sixty days.

Harrison Powell, of Baltimore, has recently come into the possession of a tortoise-shell drinking cup which was carried in General R. E. Lee's headquarters supp'y train during the campaign in Virginia, thirty years ago. At that time Alfred Harrison Powell, an uncle of Miss Powell, was the owner. He had the shell scraped and polished, and the names and the dates of the battles he had participated in, together with his name, were engraved on the outside. Mr. Jacob Late, of Hagerstown, assisted in capturing the sup-ply train, and took possession of the cup. A description of it was printed about two years ago which Miss Pollard saw. She wrote to Mr. Late, explained how she was interested in it, and expressed a wish to possess the cup. Mr. Late, although he treasured the article on account of its associa-tions, cheerfully sent it to Miss Powell. This led to the forming of a firm friend-ship between Mr. and Mrs. Late and Miss Powell, and they are now quite old friends. Miss Powell is the sister Mr. William S. Powell, of Baltimore, it was considered a sign of bad breeding for a woman ever to assume an attitude less dignifled than that of an upright poker. The change is one upon which women may be congratulated. One thing which has made old men so much more youthful-looking than old ladies is their life long habit of assuming their feet every time they sit down. But it is good for them to know that muscles always on the stretch must lose their elasticity Fashionable women to whom the necessity of never showing fatigue and of always looking their 'best' has taught the knack of acquirboudoir.
